“Be Smart Online, Stay Away from Pitfalls” Webinar cum GIF Graphic Design Contest Award Ceremony

The Office of the Government Chief Information Officer (OGCIO), the Hong Kong Police Force (HKPF), and Hong Kong Computer Emergency Response Team Coordination Centre (HKCERT) jointly organise an information security webinar.

In this highly interconnected cyber world, the ability to adequately protect against cyber attacks, such as ransomware, phishing and distributed denial-of-service (DDoS) attacks, is of paramount importance. For an enterprise, it is important not only to protect its information systems and data assets but also to protect the privacy of customer data and corporate goodwill.

In this webinar, cyber security experts will introduce cyber security best practices and share their insights on defending against cyber attacks and the enhancement of cyber security postures of enterprises. The expert speakers will also share their experiences in staying away from cyber pitfalls and offer advice for being an ethical Internet user.

You are cordially invited to participate in the webinar. The details of the event are as follows:
